Good work Susan, your painting skills are developing well. You need to work at not overworking areas in your paintings. That will come in time, but it will happen alot quicker if you make it a priority. Remember the basics of painting and you will continue to do well: work out your composition before you get to the canvas, take the time to mix the colours you want, use the right brush for the job, work background to foreground, be as sloppy as possible for as long as possible, mix your paint to the appropriate consistency for the technique you are employing, when you are trying for subtle changes in background colours the change should be just noticeable, control the contrasts (colour, light dark, tonality, temperature, simultaneous, shape, line, brush stroke direction, etc.) and make them work for you, if the painting looks better without "It" don't put "it" in, the last thing you will paint are the final highlights and shadows, you're going to make mistakes so lighten up and allow yourself to have some fun.
